

Jo.

It seems that all I can do is to be on the tail end of bad breaks. They're sending me to North Carolina.

2,000 miles from home they couldn't have sent me much further if they had tried. Going to Fort Bragg, leaving Sat.

Will write more soon as I arrive at N.C. Don't write again until you have my new address. Haven't heard from home for quite awhile. Have you? Bye now
Rita
