

Fort Bragg, N.C.
Dec. 16. 1941

Jo.

Accompanying this card you will find a small package. I hope that it meets with your approval. And that it will give you many years of service.

You no doubt are familiar with the guarantee it carries. It is a lifetime guarantee. ~~and~~ It will be fixed free of charge in case anything happens to it in any way. If you are not familiar with the guarantee, you will find it printed in all advertisements advertising this article.

Jo, I have a present for Junior but I don't know where to send it. Tell me are they still in Wyoming?

Jo, if at any time I stop writing don't worry. It will be impossible for me to write. No telling where we ~~will~~ might be sent and I may not be able to write for short periods of time. I will write as regular as I'm able. I'm telling you this so you will not worry if I don't write. For the present we will be here. We are to go on the rifle range again.

I'm hoping you have a very Merry Christmas and a very prosperous New Year.

Bye now

Bit.