Dear Folks:

In a few days I will be celebrating my second anniversary in the Army. It seems like a lifetime, and at the same time more like a bad dream. We all dream of when we will again lead an ordinary life of our own choosing. All of us our hopes are for that day.

Haven't heard from you in - a long time. I do wish you would write a little often, if only to tell you are all well.

It is quite difficult for us to write often for there is nothing one can write about. We now have motion pictures at least one every other day. We also have a radio and phonograph that we may listen to. Not long ago we were swimming in the Mediterranean it was a pleasant trip. I really enjoyed myself. I think a good time was had by all.

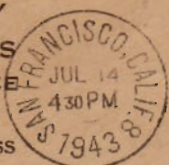

How are things at home? I suppose you are working every day, Uncle. Incidentally how is the old nurse holding out?

I have nothing more to say so I will close now. How about a letter?

Rito.
